We all dress alike. We all speak the same jargon. We all undergo the same pressures. But the character of each midshipman adds its own shade to a wide spectrum of personalities within the Brigade. Take the time to look at the faces and remember the friends that got you through here.

All midshipmen are athletes, for as we compete on the fields of friendly strife, we develop that intangible quality of the will to dare. Sure most colleges have sports teams, but here the knowledge that we may one day be called to defeat a more serious opponent drives us to push ourselves beyond our old limits.

Football

The Navy Football team struggled through 1989, but the season was not without its highpoints.

Coach Uzelac and the team spent many long, hard hours preparing for the season during the interim. The midshipmen had high hopes for a winning record, knowing that they had some great potential. Steve Tazza had won the Admiral Mack Award for the most improved player, and the team was being led by co-captains, Bob Weissenfels and James Bradley.

Navy won its first game in the rain and upset the opponent's homecoming. Coming from behind to upset North Carolina on their own turf, 12-7.

The Midshipman next spoiled Boston College's homecoming. In the battle against B.C., Navy triumphed over the Eagles, 27-24, but not before a series of injuries. The highlight of the game came toward the end when a fake punt on fourth and one was good for nine yards and a first down. This effort was a pleasant shock to Navy fans who had become accustomed to more conservative offensive play-calling.

And then there was ARMY...

Army - Navy

Navy's football team discarded some of the frustrations that had mounted during the 1989 season by coming on to defeat Army, 19-17, in a classic finish to a classic game in a classic rivalry.

The margin of victory was supplied by second class placekicker Frank Schenk, who connected on a 32-yard field goal with just 11 seconds left in the game.

The victory moved Navy ahead again in the series with 42 victories to 41 for Army and seven ties.

Quarterback Alton Grizzard time and again came up with key runs or passes to keep the winning drive going and first classman Mike Burns, making his first start ever, rushed for a career-high 57 yards on eight carries, including 20 yards on the game-winning drive of 63 yards. Prior to this game, Burns had rushed for a total of 37 yards on six carries in his career.

The Navy defense limited Army to just 208 yards rushing, well under Army's average of 360.5 which had been fourth best in the nation prior to the game.

Navy, the dominating force of the Eastern Lightweight Football League was set back in the 1989 season as parity was reached in the league. Despite the disappointing 2-4 record, the men of Navy asserted themselves as a force to be reckoned with in the ELFL.

The 1989 terrors of Turner turf were led by the likes of team captain Dave Haas on defense and Chuck "Chesty" Vickers on offense. The Navy defense remained tops in the league, placing four members on the All-League First Team. These players included seniors Brian Wright, Mike Gordon, Kevin Steck, and junior Eric Hildebrandt. The shining lights of the Navy offense were seniors Chuck Vickers and Jeff Czerewko, and junior George Dyer, each of whom was named to the All-League Second Team.

Navy Coach, Major Chuck Mulligan is expecting a hard- hitting, bone-crushing season in 1990 to regain control of the ELFL.

Soccer

It was a season fit to be tied for Navy, as we played five ties, the most in the 68-year history of Navy soccer. For the second straight year, Navy didn't lose a regular season game at Dewey Field, but losses at Richmond (1-0) and George Mason (2-0) killed Navy's hopes of defending the Colonial Athletic Association title it had won in 1988.

After opening the season with a seven-game unbeaten streak, Navy went 1-4-3 in the final eight matches. One of those ties was a dramatic 2-2 tie with Army before a standing-room only crowd at Dewey Field. Trailing 2-1 late in the match, Navy drew even with 2:02 remaining when first-classman Hal Zabrowski tapped home a loose ball after the Army goalkeeper had mishandled a shot.

Zabrowski led Navy in scoring for the third straight year with five goals and four assists and was named to the All-CAA First Team for the third straight year. Plebe Cliff Carpenter and second-classman Leon Wilson were named to the All-CAA Second Team.

Zabrowski and Plebe Jono Halverson were honored on the Division I South Atlantic team, with Zabrowski making second team and Halverson making third team. Halverson started every game at sweeper for Navy and was an integral part of a Navy defense that posted seven shutouts and allowed just 13 goals in 15 games.

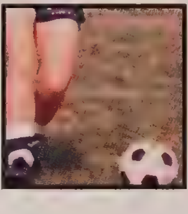
Women's Soccer



Navy Women's Soccer had tough schedule this year and was able to post a 6-8 record under the leadership of captain Suzanne Autry. The team had a new coaching staff consisting of O-rep LCDR "Buzz" Borries and coach Dr. Andy Phillips, both from the computer science department here at USNA. 1/c Tom Dent was the Assistant Coach. Under this fine leadership the team was able to excel in all aspects of the game. Outstanding performances for the season were given by forwards Suzanne Autry, Darcy Irwin, goalkeeper Jo McCabe, and stopper Katie Patrick. Some new players that brought new talent to the team were Vanessa Henderson and Heather Katcharian. The team will miss the five 1/c that have gone on to serve in the regular Navy, but we should prosper well from the old and new talents. What's next . . . varsity status?

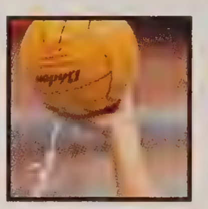
Water Polo



Navy's three-year reign as Eastern water polo champions ended as Brown scored with seven seconds left to beat Navy, 6-5, in the semi-finals of the Eastern Championships.

First-classman Tom Tomsheck was named to the All-East First Team for the second straight year, and he was joined on that team by youngster Luis Nicolao. Captain Mike Peterson earned mention on the All-East Second Team, and second-class-man Elton Parker was an honorable mention selection.

Nicolao was named the Mid-Atlantic League Most Valuable Player as he led Navy to the Mid-Atlantic League title for the fourth straight year and seventh time in eight years. Nicolao scored five goals in the Mid-Atlantic League championship game as Navy beat Iona, 12-8.

After the season, Nicolao was named an honorable mention All-America.

Volleyball

Navy Volleyball returned this year with a new head coach and a new attitude. Former assistant coach, Mike Schwob, took the reins of this young and talented team. Navy returned eleven players from last year's fourth place finish in the EIVA Championships.

Senior and team captain Scott Pitcock, a 5'10" back row specialist, anchored the back row for the midshipmen. With a rifling serve and devastating back court defense Scott was a dazzling player and one to keep an eye on throughout future seasons. Senior setter, Eric Pfister, earned the title of "Super-Server" at the Hall of Fame Classic in Springfield, Massachusetts. This hard working setter provides leadership on and off the court. Tyler "Vanilla Thunder" Turvold, a 6'5" middle blocker from Honolulu, Hawaii, rules the net with reckless abandon. A formidable threat from the front and back row, Tyler is looked at in key offensive situations. Dave "Claw" Hauth, a Fab-50 player from Eden, New York, provides the power from the right side with his unique hitting style. Junior, Joe "Platehead" Guido, a burly outside hitter and former Olympic Festival athlete, gave a savage offensive attack and relentless defensive pursuit. John "Tomato" Drosner, a worker both on the court and in the weight room, claimed the title of the team's best blocker. Jeff "Tweety" Prichard, a walk-on his freshman year, has made a name for himself in both the front and the back row. Sophomores, George Beiter and Tom Kait have both earned Second Team All-East selections and played in the 1990 Olympic Sports Festival. Jeff Kristick, a Fab-50 member, is one of the teams most talented all around players. Outside hitter, Brian Brinket, is fighting for the position of swing hitter.

W. Volleyball

Though the team was very young, Navy finished with a winning record for the sixth straight year. First classman Stacey Dannenberg and youngster Laura Hatcher earned spots on the American Volleyball Coaches Association Division II All-Region Team. Dannenberg's showed her skill in the position of middle back, while Hatcher added to the quick middle offense and tough blocking defense.

Dannenberg, team captain, led Navy in service aces with 54. Hatcher concluded the season as the nation's top shot blocker in Division II, setting Navy records with the most block solos (105) and block assists (126) in one season. Fourth classman Courtney Van Schooneveld finished the season with a Navy record of 707 passes. She was the team's most consistent player and contributed a new dimension of defense to the outside hitter spot. She, Tiffany Lord and Katherine Badgley made All-Conference.

Other noteworthy players were Allison Datka, Rachelle Smith and Tiffany Lord. Allison, a versatile player, hit from the weak side of the court offering a variation to the Navy plays. Rachelle and Tiffany alternated at the starting setting position.

Though losing the opener to North Dakota, the women swept the Trident Invitational, beating Pace, Shippensburg, Concorde and American. They then moved on to win the UMBC Invitational, place second at the Towson and IUP Invitationals, but did not fair as well at the West Point Classic. But the team rallied back at our own Navy Classic, to beat E. Stroudsburg, Dowling, ESU and D.C. Overall, Navy finished fourth of 37 teams in the Atlantic Region.

Cross Country

The 1989 season for Navy's Cross Country team will definitely standout in the memory of anybody that follows the team or that participated. It will be remembered for the tragic car accident that claimed four of our close teammates in the late summer. Bob Packowski, Willie Donovan, Andy Myers, and Don Landry will not only be remembered as runners, but also as students, classmates, and as close friends.

Through the season, we achieved a record of 8 and 2. Along the way we claimed an easy victory on a muddy Army course. The team began to peak towards the end of the season with strong performances from Chris Tipton, Don Brown, Tim Barkdoll, Mike Conover, Frank Flores, and Greg Keller. We placed second in our division of the ICAA, which qualified us for the NCAA meet for the second year in a row. This season will also stand out due to the fact that Navy hosted the Division I Men's and Women's NCAA meet in Annapolis. At the NCAA meet, the team placed 21st in the nation for the second consecutive year.

St. Joseph
NAVY

The women's cross-country team encountered another highly successful season with a 4-0 record in dual meets. This was the second undefeated season in a row, and included victories over Division I rivals Fordham and St. Joe's.

One of the highlights of the lady harriers' season was their hard-fought victory over Army under wet and treacherous conditions up at West Point. The Navy women thrashed the cadets 16-45 with 1/C Maria Filonczuk, 2/C Kathy Fitzpatrick, and 4/C Kerry O'Neill leading the way. The following week they took 4th place at the Heptagonal Championships, their best finish ever. On November 4, 1989, the women won the Eastern Regional and ECAC Championships with 1/C Maria Filonczuk, 1/C Kelly Van Dyke, 2/C Kathy Fitzpatrick, 2/C Liz Fitzpatrick, 2/C Amy Colvin, and 4/C Kerry O'Neill all receiving All-East honors. 2/C Kathy Fitzpatrick was the ECAC champion, and coach Karen Boyle the Eastern Region Coach of the Year.

The Navy women earned a berth to the NCAA Division II Championships for the second straight year. They capped off another fine season with a 5th place finish at the national meet. 2/C Kathy Fitzpatrick took All-America honors with a 14th place finish. Look out! Navy women's cross-country promises to continue its winning ways into the 90's!!!

Basketball

Youth and inexperience proved to be Navy's biggest adversaries throughout the 1989-90 season, as a team with no firsties and seven plebes struggled against more seasoned competiion.

Navy returned three of its top four scorers from 1988-89, including team captain and second-team All Colonial Athletic Association player Eddie Reddick. Three other second-classmen joined Reddick on the roster, while the remaining 10 players were plebes and youngsters.

After dropping the opener and posting a win over Hofstra, the Mids fell to Tennessee-Chattanooga in the first round of the Disneyland Freedom Bowl Classic in Irvine, CA before losing a one-point heartbreaker at the buzzer to Bucknell in the consolation. A three-point loss to Towson State and an overtime loss to Pennsylvania set the tone for a season of frustration and hardship.

Conference play started with a loss at East Carolina, but it was a different team that took the floor at UNC-Wilmington. After claiming a 62-59 victory over the Seahawks, Navy disposed of William & Mary, 80-59, in Halsey Field House. Freshman Michael Burd poured in 18 points after moving into the starting lineup at Wilmington. Navy travelled to Richmond to face a talented Spider squad that had won three in a row over us. Navy stunned the Spiders, however, with a 57-46 victory in an overall team effort, led by Reddick with a career-high 16 rebounds.

Navy finished the conference slate sixth after being picked to finish last in preseason ratings. The Mids met third-seeded American in the first round of the Colonial Athletic Association Tournament in Richmond, VA, bowing to the Eagles, 71-61, to close out the season with a disappointing 5-23 overall record.

Women's Basketball

It didn't take first-year coach Jerry Hutchison long to establish himself as a winner at Navy. Following a season-opening setback to Indiana, PA, Navy reeled off eight straight victories--tying an Academy record--en route to a 16-8 overall mark.

At the heart of Navy's success was first-class center Connie James, who by season's end held 10 Academy records, including most career rebounds (891). She also finished as Navy's second all-time leading scorer with 1643 points.

In the waning days of her career, James played perhaps the greatest game in Navy women's basketball history when she scored 38 points and grabbed 22 rebounds--both Academy records--in a 96-63 victory over Marymount. She was honored as the Eastern Collegiate Athletic Conference Division II Player of the Week for that effort.

Youngster Angela Dobbs tallied 404 points (17.6 points per game) and became just the second Navy player in history to score 400 points as a youngster. A 5'9 sharpshooting forward, Dobbs sank 39.3 percent of her three-pointers.

Youngster Pauline Holzhauer, who had played sparingly as a Plebe, developed into an inside force, with 8.5 points and 7.6 rebounds per game. She tallied a career-high 22 points in the season finale. First-classman Tawny Petrick, the team captain, added 8.3 points per game and dished off a team-high 101 assists.

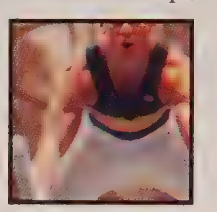
Gymnastics

The men's gymnastics team finished up their season with a record of 8 and 1. During the regular season the team went undefeated in all Eastern League dual meets and finished second at the Eastern Championships. Individual winners included senior Jason Carter, the new Eastern High Bar Champion; Jerry Haran, who captured second place in the all around as well as fourth on the pommel horse; and Mark Fiori, who grabbed fourth on the high bar. Second classman Steve Parker placed second on the vault, fourth on the floor and fourth on rings, while his classmate Curt Leyshon took an impressive third place on high bar and fifth on pommel horse. The team finished their season, and ended their season-long goal of qualifying for the NCAA Championship, by placing sixth in the Eastern regional meet. The top four teams received automatic bids to that meet. Navy was not completely shut out from the NCAA Championships, though, as second-classman Steven Parker qualified on vault when he scored 9.275 to finish sixth at the regional meet.



Navy rattled off nine straight dual-meet victories-- including their ninth straight victory over Army--, and came within one victory of their first undefeated dual-meet season since 1960-61. Our gymnasts scored a season-high of 276.00 in a dual-meet victory over Temple, but the Owls gained revenge later when they dethroned Navy as Eastern Intercollegiate Gymnastics League champion. Navy had won the EIGL title the last three years.

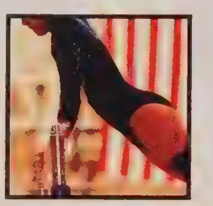
Women's Gymnastics



The Women's Gymnastics Team jumped into the 1989-90 season with a greater than 46 point win over Ursinus. Led by first-year coach ENS. Garry Yuen and captain Anne Marie Katcharian, the team entered a rebuilding stage. Armed with 1987 National All-Around Champion 2/C Michelle Reyes and 5 other returning letter winners including Katcharian, 1/C Cathy Moody, 2/C Angela Hart, 2/C Suzie Kline, and 3/C Talley McIntyre, the team grew with 7 new members.

In three consecutive meets, the team broke the overall school record by a margin of almost 3 points with the new record standing at 171.75. Another bright spot in the season occurred when four members of the Navy team, Reyes, Kline, McIntyre, and Moody were all selected to the ECAC Division II Women's Gymnastics All-Conference Team. Reyes went on to be named to the All-American National Team for the third year in a row, and earned 6th place all around at Division II Nationals held in Colorado Springs, CO.

Indoor Track

Navy avenged last year's disputed loss at Army with a 77-59 victory over the Cadets in Halsey Field House, which was the high point of the 3-2 dual-meet season.

First-classman Tim Barkdoll keyed Navy's victory over Army as he won the mile and 3000-meter run in that meet. Barkdoll, who captained Navy's cross country team last fall, qualified for the NCAA Championships in the 3000, finishing 11th in the finals.

Second-classman Matt Howard also qualified for nationals as he developed into one of the nation's top 35-pound weight throwers. He placed fourth at the prestigious Millrose Games at Madison Square Garden and finished seventh at the NCAA Championships with a toss of 62-01/2.

Second-classman Rob Sehnert also competed at the Millrose Games, finishing fourth in the shot put (57-4). Sehnert finished second in that event at the Heptagonals Championships, in which Navy finished third. Three Mids won events in that meet: First-classman Clay Stackhouse in the 55-meter dash, in a meet-record 6.30, first-classman and captain Efrem Venters in the 400-meter dash (48.39), and second-classman Anthony Terrell in the triple jump with an Academy record-tying leap of 51-3.

First-classman Racquel Williams set a new Academy triple-jump record in the Army-Navy meet (37-7 3/4) but the Cadets still prevailed with a 73-45 victory over the Mids. Navy had beaten Army two straight times in cross country but had yet to beat the Cadets in track.

Navy's reign as Eastern Collegiate Athletic Conference Division II indoor champions ended in March, as the Mids finished fourth at the ECAC meet. Second-classman Marti Shue won the 3000-meter run and the Navy team of Alexis Petrosky, Julie Pelton, Kerry O'Neill and Kathy Fitzpatrick won the distance medley relay in 12:35.90.

Second-classman Maureen Magnan was second in the 20-pound weight throw at the ECAC meet (49-0 1/2) and won that event at the Delaware Collegiate Open, setting a meet record of 45-6 1/2.

First-classman Honore Mealey was Navy's lone qualifier to the NCAA Division II Indoor Track Championships, but she was forced to withdraw from the 800-meter run when she became ill shortly before the meet.

Wrestling

Navy claimed the Eastern Intercollegiate Wrestling Association title for the first time in four years, and two Mids earned All-America honors to lead Navy to a 13th place finish at the NCAA Championships. It was Navy's best finish at the national meet in seven years.

First-classman and 158-pounder Scott Schleicher was ranked number one in the nation at that weight class most of the year and finished second at the NCAA Championships. Navy's first finalist sine 1983, Schleicher won two overtime bouts to reach the finals before falling to Oklahoma State's Pat Smith, 11-7, in the national title bout. Schleicher ended the season 32-4-1 and concluded his glorious Navy career with a mark of 111-18-3. A two-time All-America, Schleicher ranks second in Navy career victories (111) and matches (132).

Second-classman Brett Bourne (heavyweight) also grappled to All-America honors with a fifth-place showing at the NCAA Championships. Bourne, who finished 32-5-2 to tie Schleicher for the team lead in victories, rallied from a 5-1 deficit to beat fourth-seeded John Oostendorp of Iowa in the consolations. Not since 1972 had two Navy wrestlers finished in the top five in their weight classes at the NCAA Championships.

Schleicher and Bourne, though, were just two of the pieces of the puzzle that when fully assembled, compiled an 18-5 dual-meet mark and won the prestigious EIWA crown. Four other Mids advanced to the NCAA Championships, including youngster Mark Smith (126), first-classman Ed Dewald (167), second-classman Steve Cantrell (177) and first-classman Dave Raby (190). Smith, Dewald and Bourne each won EIWA titles, while Schleicher, Cantrell and Raby each placed second.

Three of Navy's five dual-meet losses came against nationally-ranked competition, and the Mids extended their unbeaten string against Army to 28 with a 21-11 victory in Annapolis. Navy has gone 25-0-3 in the last 28 meetings with the archrivals from West Point.

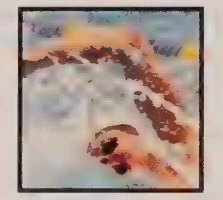
Swimming



The Navy Men's Swimming team had a tough season, finishing with a record of 3-10 which included a loss to Army. After early losses to James Madison and East Carolina. Navy never seemed able to gain its footing. However, bolstered by an excellent underclass, the future looks bright.

The Mids placed 17th at the Eastern Seaboard Championships in March, and youngster John Phillips broke the Academy record in the 200-yard breaststroke at that meet. Plebe Eric Winter was a finalist in two events at Easterns as he placed third in the 1650-yard freestyle and sixth in the 500-yard freestyle. First-classman Paul Feduchak finished sixth on the one-meter board at Easterns and earned a trip to the NCAA Championships with a second-place finish on the one-meter board at the NCAA Regional diving meet. Feduchak, Navy's lone competitor at the NCAA Championships, placed 27th on the one-meter board and 32nd on the three-meter board.

Women's Swimming

Navy bolted to a 6-0 start--the best in Academy history--and finished fourth at the NCAA Division II National Championships, the best finish ever for the Mids at that meet. The Mids also won their third straight Colonial Athletic Association crown.

Thirteen Mids earned All-America honors at the NCAA Division II Championships. Heading that list were first-classmen Debbie Williams, Dora Lockwood, Chris Frueh and captain Heidi Savage, all of whom were named first-team All-America for the fourth straight year. Youngster diver Stacia Johnson earned first-team All-America honors for the second straight year and continued to assault record books wherever she competed. Johnson now holds pool records at Navy, West Virginia, Drexel and James Madison.

Other first-team All-America selections included first-classman Laura Pearson and plebes Kelly Hoeft, Kelly Kinsella, Amy Lynn Schmidt and Mary Beth Sines.

Honorable-mention All-America honors were accorded to first-classman Jennifer Rowe, who earned All-America honors for the third straight year, and Plebe diver Heather Davies.

The Mids placed seventh of 14 teams at the Intercollegiate Fencing Association Championships and qualified three fencers for the NCAA Championships. Second-classman Art Glasgow placed twelfth at the NCAA Championships in foil, while first-classman Matthew Ellis (sabre) and second-classman Paul Hanover (epee) each qualified for the national championships but were eliminated in the first round.

Glasgow compiled a 21-0 streak late in the season and finished the regular season with a 30-11 mark. He and Hanover (30-10) tied for the team lead in victories, while Ellis finished 29-13. Other top records for Navy included youngster David Brett-Major, who was 27-14 in epee, and youngster Tom Chung, who was 24-17 in foil.

Women's Fencing

Navy Women's Fencing had a great season led by the team captain, midshipman first-class Fredrica Spilman who concluded the winningest career in Navy Women's Fencing history. This season she achieved a 51-12 record. Spilman displayed her well rounded character as a scholar and athlete by also attaining academic excellence as an Aerospace major with a double minor in French and German. Spilman completed the season with a 141-43 career mark. Spilman's 51 victories for the year also broke the single season record (43) that she had set the previous year.

For the second straight year, Spilman finished fifth in the individual standings at the National Intercollegiate Women's Fencing Association Championship in which Navy placed seventh among fifteen teams.

Spilman and two other first-classmen Lisa Kirkpatrick and Linda Slootmaker earned letters as starting members of the Women's Fencing Team.

Spilman and Kirkpatrick (34-27) both competed in the NCAA qualifying action. However, both were eliminated in the first round.

Boxing

Navy boxing took a new attitude this year. With the help of a new assistant coach, Ron Stutzman, Navy determined to build a team to win the national title. Promising new boxers fought at Lockhaven University. Also, the returning senior brigade champs made the traditional trip to the Downtown Athletic Club in New York City. These trips gave experience to the team and created perhaps the most exciting brigade tournament Navy has ever held. Wayne Parker won a challenge match to unseat the brigade champion and earned a trip to Easterns. At Easterns, Navy dominated the other schools and won 9 of the 12 weight classes. At the Nationals Marvin Reed, Jim Russo, John Jones and Demetrius Maxey slugged their way to the finals. Only Maxey won a national title, although Reed was robbed after brutally punishing last year's national champion for three rounds. Navy finished fifth overall this year.

Hockey

When March 1989 rolled around, Navy Hockey not only found itself at the end of another great season, but also short several talented graduating seniors. Head coach Jim Barry looked to his returning players for continued strong play and new players to fill in the gaps.

Plebe, John Hetland came on to fill the spots left open on defense while plebes Eric Fontaine, and Steve Roberto supplemented the offense. Jeff Fogarty, though he saw limited time on the ice, added a punch to Navy's scoring power. Goalie Rich Doyle, a third class, walked on the team at the beginning of the season and skated off with Rookie of the Year honors. Returning players, Art Delacruz, Tim Fetsch, Rob Masson, Jake Skala, Adam O'Neill, and John Quinlan continued their great play and led Navy to one of our best seasons ever.

Team captain, John Guiliano, and assistant captains, Ray Cournoyer and J. R. Olson provided fine leadership both on and off the ice. With their skill and experience, Navy attained a national ranking of 14 among club teams. New assistant coach, LT Mike Stapleton (a Navy hockey alumnus) and new officer representative Capt. Jim Hoynes both added the final support to a solid team.

The season started strong with the midshipmen going undefeated before Christmas with wins over Deleware, West Chester, and West Virginia to name a few. With the beginning of the second semester came the split of a weekend series with College Militaire Royale (CMR) of St. Jean, Canada and an injury plagued trip to Rhode Island and Massachusetts. But when the season was over, Navy finished 2nd in the Southern Division of the ECHL (East Coast Hockey League). Navy looks to be even stronger in the upcoming year as we will only lose four seniors.

Pistol

Navy won the NRA National Collegiate Pistol Championships in March and four Mids were selected to the All-America team. Navy scored 6434 at the championship meet and finished first in standard pistol (2189), first in free pistol (2038) and second in air pistol (2207). Navy has now won at least one of the collegiate pistol national championships (standard, free, air) in 15 of the last 16 years. Navy's All-Americas included plebe Chris Alvarez, who finished first overall in air pistol with a score of 656, third in free pistol and a fourth in standard. Navy's other All-Americas included first-classman Keith Hanzel and Luke Ritter (standard) and plebe Jim Marsh (air and standard). Ritter is now a three-time All-America.

Under first-year coach Bill Karditzas, Navy finished the dual-meet season undefeated for the sixth time in the last seven years, and avenged last year's lone setback with a 10,418-10,409 victory over arch-rival Army at West Point.

Led by four-time All-America Will Suggs, Navy placed second at the NCAA Rifle Championships held at the Naval Academy in March. It was the highest finish ever for a service academy at the championship meet, which was won by West Virginia for the third straight year and sixth time in the last eight years.

Suggs finished fourth in the smallbore individual championship, just one point behind champion Michelle Scarborough of South Florida. Suggs, who placed thirteenth in the air rifle individual championship, was the only Mid to qualify for the individual championship shooting in both smallbore and air rifle. He also led Navy in the team shooting, scoring 390 in air rifle and 1158 in smallbore.

Plebe John Campbell placed seventeenth in individual smallbore shooting at the NCAA Championships, while second-classman Guy Coursey finished thirtieth.

Navy's lone dual-meet setback was a 7608-7579 loss to Army, snapping Navy's three-match winning streak against the Cadets.

Ultimate Frisbee

Navy Ultimate Frisbee finished the 1989-90 season with a 32-11 record, three tournament championships, and yet another sectional title. With numerous returning players and some talented rookies, the team hopes to have an even better season this year. This group of athletes is led by Midshipman Captain Mike McCartney whose talent is complemented by a score of veteran players including handlers 1/c Don "Oz" Ozborne and 2/c Orie "Cheezer" Doffin, middle-/longman 1/c Leif "The Crazed" Steinbaugh and 2/c Pete "Faceplant" Tyson, and defensive wizard 1/c Mark Watkins. Impressive newcomers include names such as 2/c Dan Drake, 2/c Scott Radke, 2/c Rob Turner, 3/c Bryan Williams, 3/c Tim Stoble, 3/c "Fast" Eddie Landrith, 3/c John Stammerich, and 4/c Dave Vavasseur.

Ultimate Frisbee is an exciting, quickly-growing sport evidenced here at USNA by the growth and success of the team and the revival of "Disk Football" as an intramural sport. The UPA or Ultimate Players Association, whose membership includes the Navy Ultimate Frisbee team, is increasing dramatically in size as they distribute information and newsletters, and organize nationals and even world tournaments.

Squash

Dave Brown's team established a new single-season record for victories with 19, and the Mids finished ninth in the final National Intercollegiate Squash Racquets Association team standings.

For the ninth consecutive year, a Navy player was named All-America as second-classman Sunil Desai earned that honor (second team) after finishing 14-9 on the year at number one.

Youngster Andy McCartney and Plebe Casey Garwood tied for the team lead in victories, as Garwood was 18-9 at number two and three while McCartney was 18-7, playing primarily at number six or seven.

Late in the year, Brown was elected president of the National Intercollegiate Squash Racquets Association. Brown had also served as vice-president and treasurer of that organization.

Baseball

When Navy lost four of its last five games, the Mids had to settle for a 16-20 record for the year, their first losing season since 1964.

Navy, usually one of the contenders in the Eastern Intercollegiate Baseball League, had to be satisfied with a 6-12 league mark this year, with 15 of those 18 games decided by one or two runs. Navy went 6-9 in those contests. Overall, 23 of Navy's 36 games were decided by one or two runs in 1990 with the Mids showing an 11-12 log in those.

Inconsistent hitting and youthfulness contributed to Navy's lack of success during the year. Navy batted only .243 for the season and the team had only four first classmen.

Second-classman Tom Kim, an outfielder and designated hitter, was the pacesetter in hitting with a .329 mark while firstie outfielder Chris Engdahl batted .310 with a team-high 35 hits and eight doubles.

Joe Pasquito, a second class outfielder, paced Navy in runs-batted-in for the second straight year with 23 and second class infielder Sam Mowery topped the team in runs scored (29) and stolen bases (15).

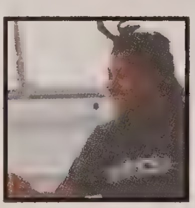
Aerobics

For Aerobics, this has been an exciting year. Under the instruction of Carla Myers, Lynn Smith, Frank Bendick and Lynn Chapman, Aerobics has seen quite a few heavy workouts. One session consists of two parts: a fast paced heart throbbing 35 minutes and a floor workout of about 30 minutes. The music for the workout is provided for by the midshipmen instructors who also supply the stereo equipment. One could hear anything from hard rock to rap to classical music in a workout. Each instructor develops their own routine through research in fitness magazines and by learning from previous Aerobics instructors which exercises are beneficial to a particular muscle group and concentrating on those areas. For instance, it seemed that a favorite muscle group of Lynne Chapman was legs, legs and more legs.



As President, Carla Myers also instructed a noon time session of Aerobics to the officers, faculty and volunteering midshipmen. Workouts with Carla were definitely hard to get through, but were a very fulfilling experience.

Some of the problems Aerobics faced this year was finding a location that the club would not get thrown out of or not interfere with another sport. After switching rooms a couple of times, Aerobics found itself in a small corner room in the upper deck of Halsey with little ventilation and not much room to work out in. Perhaps next year's President will be faced with this same problem.

All in all, Aerobics is a sport for everyone, including Navy's football players who frequently attended sessions for a good cardiovascular workout. New exercises are always being implemented in Aerobics.

Crew

"I had a good feeling all season long about this crew--they were great to work with."

Those words summed up veteran Coach Rick Clothier's thoughts about Navy's 1990 heavyweight crew which ended up its season with a victory over Wisconsin in a dual regatta and the winning of the Ten Eyck Trophy.

At the 88th Intercollegiate Rowing Association Championships, Navy earned a first place, a second, two thirds and two fourths in winning the Ten Eyck Memorial Trophy for the eighth time since it was first awarded in 1952.

The Midshipmen compiled 310.7 points, well ahead of Pennsylvania which had 279.45 points and Wisconsin at 279.25.

Navy's lone first place came in the Grand Finals of the second varsity competition when the Mids posted a time of 6:16.4.

Navy's varsity eight boat was fourth in the Varsity Challenge Cup with Wisconsin winning, followed by Pennsylvania and Syracuse. Navy had beaten Wisconsin in a dual regatta on the Severn River in late May by one-tenth of a second.

Navy's freshmen eight was third at the IRA and the freshmen four with coxswain was second. The varsity pair without coxswain was third and the varsity four without coxswain finished fourth. The varsity four with coxswain was fifth.

Altogether, Navy had seven of the eight boats it entered reach the Grand Finals at the IRA.

In the regatta with Wisconsin, Navy also took the second varsity and freshmen eight races while Wisconsin dominated the small boat competition, winning four of the five races there.

At the Eastern Sprints Rowing Championships at Worcester, MA in mid-May, Navy saw its varsity eight finish fourth, the second varsity third and the freshmen eight fourth.

In other competition this spring, Navy was second behind Syracuse in the Goes Trophy Cup with Cornell third; the Mids were second behind Pennsylvania but ahead of Harvard in the Adams Cup Regatta; and the Mids were second behind the China National Team at the Opening Day Regatta in Seattle--Navy was the top collegiate crew in this regatta.

Lt. Wt. Crew

The 1989-90 Lightweight Crew season got off to a solid start in the fall racing season. Led by team captain 1/c Tom Callander, the varsity eight surprised their competition by coming from relatively low seedings to win the Navy Day Regatta in Philadelphia, place fourth in the Head of the Schuylkill, and display a strong showing in the internationally attended Head of the Charles in Boston.

The initial success of the team was due mainly to the experience of the eight returning lettermen; Callander, 1/c John Brady, 1/c Scott Roza (stroke), 1/c Wyman Howard, 1/c Cary Smith, 2/c Mike Kuypers, 2/c James Baca, and 2/c Kevin Harris (coxswain). The new face in the boat was 3/c Chris Guidry who earned his place among the veterans through hard work in the fall training before the season.

The intensity of the early morning practices after Christmas and the determination of the oarsman gave the spring season a bright outlook. Then an unfortunate string of occurances took away the core of the experience which led Navy to success in the fall. Roza was forced to leave the team due to the time requirements of his involvement in the Graduate Education Program. To make matters worse, both Brady and Harris also opted to leave the team. Despite these hardships, both the team morale and the intensity level of the training were unwavering.

After the loss of the experience and a number of surprising efforts by youngsters, the varsity boat took on an entire new look for the spring racing season. Of the eight oarsmen in the fall, only four remained. Callander, Baca, Kuypers, and Guidry were joined by 2/c Alec McKenzy, 3/c Frank Kochenash, 3/c Jason Ockwood, and 3/c Rob Mathewson. The boat had strong showings against the Ivy's and its accomplishments included wins over George Mason and Coast Guard and an eighth place finish in the Eastern Sprints.

The young oarsmen of this years varsity eight will be complimented next year by a strong junior varsity crew and some exceptional plebes. The experience and work ethic gained by the team this year and a newly regimented training program for next fall should yield an exciting and successful 90-91 racing season.

Women's Crew

This year's women's crew returned with only three rowers from last year's varsity boat, team captain Tara Traynor and second classmen Bridget Gies and Darla Lamper. Fortunately, many rowers from last year's gold medal winning JV and silver medal novice eights returned to fill in the gaps. Through a series of line ups, the team developed two exceptional boats, once again showing the depth of the team.

After a rewarding fall season, the team rowed to two disappointing losses in the first two races against tough Division I teams. From there, the crew surged to a win over Virginia, a dramatic final ten meter push for a gold medal at the George Washington Invitational Regatta, and an exciting push from behind to a photo finish second place to Division I Columbia at the Potomac International Regatta. This finish combined with a second place from the JV and a gold medal from the Novice eight earned the crew the International Regatta Team Championship.

The next weekend the crew rowed to a clean sweep over Temple as the varsity eight made preparations to travel to Seattle for the 1990 Opening Day Regatta. In Seattle, the Navy women participated in their first international competition placing fourth behind the Chinese national team, Britain's Cambridge and the University of Washington.

The season climaxed in Philadelphia at the Dad Vail Championship Regatta. The varsity eight rowed to a bronze medal, the JV to a gold (for the 3rd year in a row), and the undefeated novice to a gold medal. This combined effort marked the best finish in the Navy women's crew history and earned the team the Nancy Seitz Team Championship trophy for the fourth year in a row.

Golf

The Navy Golf team got off to a slow start having lost 3 top players last year.

After poor finishes at the James Madison Invitational and William and Mary Tournament, the team began to shine at the Camp Lejeune Intercollegiate Invitational. A score of 301 was posted which was the lowest in 14 years. Captain Daryl Potter finished 13th while J.D. Rios finished 15th.

Navy golf continued its good fortune with a strong showing at the Conference Tournament as freshman Mike Joyner finished 6th.

In a dual-meet, the team boasted a 4-0 record including a 70 by Junior Dan Hodgson--Navy's low round of the year.

In a climax to an already successful year, Navy defeated Army's tough squad in a one-shot victory (383-384). Mike Joyner was medalist with a 74.

Coach Larry Ringer was greatly pleased with the team effort from Potter, Hodgson, Rios, Joyner, and letter-winners sophomore Jamie D'Alessandro, junior Travis White, and senior Dave Dorton. Coach Ringer hopes for an even stronger year next season as his team has 5 of 7 letter winners returning.

We beat Army for the 5th straight year making the seniors four-time N Star winners. The 19-9 score over Army set a record for most goals scored against Army in a lacrosse game. Navy's team captain, Brian Keith, led the way with 25 goals scored while junior Dennis Nealon has 22 goals and 29 assists. Senior Mike Herger had 21 goals and 24 assists. The Defense was anchored by senior goal tender Louis Brown and defenseman, junior John Duthie.

Keith, a midfielder, was voted to the second team All-America while Herger and Nealon were both honorable mention selections. Herger and Keith were also chosen to play in the North-South All-Star Lacrosse Game.

Women's Lacrosse

Before they could even begin to play a single game, the women's lacrosse team had many obstacles to overcome. It took the work of team captain Cheryl Herrick, along with the help of coach Ann Wallace and officer representative Captain McCoy to establish the team as the newest element in Naval Academy sports. Once the initial organization was complete, the team had to gather enough players and practice. Through the winter and early spring they held Saturday morning practices in an attempt to teach the many new players the basics, as well as to create a coherent team. The first scheduled event, a four team tournament, was dissappointingly snowed out. Yet the team went on to play four other games during the season against Loyola J.V., Anne Arundel Community College, Army and George Mason. Although they played hard, the team did not win the first three games. Yet they were all very enthusiastic for each game and happy just to be playing lacrosse. Finally the team's hard work paid off in the last game of the season when they defeated George Mason and recorded the first win ever in the history of Navy women's lacrosse. The team is already looking forward to their second year and hope to again make history by beating Army.

Tennis

The frustrations of this past season were eased somewhat by three season-ending victories, including a 7-2 triumph over Army.

The Mids were hampered by injuries to key players throughout the season and finally had their full lineup together for the final week of the year.

The win over the Cadets was the 21st straight for the Midshipmen in this rivalry.

Youngster Wayne Jang, playing mostly at number three, was the team's winningest player with a 21-11 record, including a 19-10 log in dual-match competition. First classman Pat Walker was 20-20 in singles competition and he and Jang were 15-10 in doubles. Other top records included youngster Paul Kruse, 17-11, primarily at number four; and Plebe Efren Mojica, 18-16, mostly at three-four.

Sailing

The Varsity Offshore Sailing Team had a great year with the class of '90 at the helm. Practicing five days a week and filling most weekends with regattas, the Offshore Team raced almost ten months this last year with great success. Team Captain Dan Gordillo skippered the Navy 44 Fearless to a third in the Corinthian Intercollegiate Regatta in the fall. Skipper duties were split on Avenger this year with Rick Haberlin and filled by Tom Fuglestad during the summer. Avenger placed second in the McMillan Intercollegiate Cup, second in the Annapolis Spring Race, won the Parker Memorial Race and placed third in both the Edgartown Regatta and Volvo Newport Regatta. Kevin Hawko took Constilation's Crew to a first in Kennedy Cup and the Gibson Island Regatta. Gibson Island was a clean sweep by Navy with Cinnabar skippered by Allen Minnick taking second, Andy Burden and Insurgent third and Greg Collandrea on Morning Light taking fourth. Kelly Dobson did well on Spitfire taking first in N.A.S.S. Spring Race. Neil Covington on Dauntless rounded out the skippers this year. In all, Navy brought home plenty of silver this year and are looking for an even better season next year.

Dinghy And Wind Surfers

Sailing develops a love for the sea and it gives the midshipmen experience in a marine environment with which they must become familiar. They must develop intuition, resourcefulness and the ability to make quick decisions. They give and take orders, and must learn ship handling and basic nautical knowledge. Being a part of a small crew of a sailboat teaches these things best. Our goal has always been to provide the best trained naval officers possible for the Navy and therefore we have developed the best sail training program in the world.

The Sailing Program is all encompassing—from basic instruction to ocean racing, from leisurely afternoon cruising to the keen competition of high performance intercollegiate dinghies. Our sailing fleet consists of Lasers, 420s, Windsurfers, Mistrals, 24-foot sloop-rigged Knockabouts, J/24s, 44-foot Luders yawls, and an impressive variety of state-of-the-art ocean racers which were generously donated by American yachtsmen in expressing their support of sail training at the Academy.

Competition provides us the opportunity to observe our officers-in-training under conditions of stress and crisis not unlike those experienced in combat, to teach the necessities of preparation, training and coolness under pressure—and how to win.

Cycling Team

In 1989-90 the Navy cycling team continued to establish itself as one of the premier college cycling teams in the East. Three days of individual time trials were used to select the twenty men and five women who would make up the team. The fall season was highlighted by Navy's destruction of Army at the Tour de Junque race. Navy captured the military team championship as well as the collegiate team championship. Joe Blackstone '90, was a triple race winner that day. That winter, while many other cyclists went into hibernation, Navy continued its training with an array of pool workouts, weight training, and of course, long, cold rides. The momentum from the winter carried over into the spring season. During spring break the team rode from Kentucky to the Academy, a distance of over one thousand miles, in ten days. The trip was sponsored by the Alumni Association and took the team through the back roads and mountains of Tennessee, West Virginia, Virginia and Maryland. The next race was the Annapolis Stage Classic, a three day event consisting of an individual time trial, a criterium around the stadium, and a road race in Crownsville. At the Atlantic Coast Collegiate Cycling Championships in Blacksburg, Virginia, Navy captured its second straight championship. The relentless riding of Matt Leahy and Al Abbs keyed the Navy victory. The Navy team that showed up at the National championships a few weeks later in Stanford, California was one devastated by injuries, among them team captain and top rider Matt Simms. But Navy showed its depth by reaching into its reserves and coming up with several strong replacements. Among them was Dan Stimpson, whose powerful riding helped Navy to 11th place in the team time trial.

Karate

The USNA Karate Club is an ECA for Midshipmen who wish to study martial arts. The club's formal style is a Chinese style known as Shaolin Kempo. The club welcomes students of various styles and skill levels, including beginners. Practices include conditioning exercises, learning and perfecting punches, blocks, and kicks, kata, self defense techniques, and free sparring.

The club participated in demonstrations at pep rallies and during commissioning week. Testings (belt promotions) were held in December and April, and formal tournaments, including one at West Point. Belt testing is conducted by the club instructors.

Brigade Activities Center

The Brigade Activities Center, or BAC, completed this spring, is the home of many ECA's and sports. It was first used during Commisioning Week '90, has been used during the summer and will continue to be used during the fall. The building was funded by alumni donations and the cornerstone was laid in 1988. The pictures on the following pages represent the different phases of its construction. The pictures were taken by Stephen Amiaga '90, as part of an extensive project to capture the BAC as the Class of 1990 knew it, under construction. The pictures were taken every other week for 20 weeks and show the process from beginning to end.

Class Of 1993

Carpe Diem - The class of 1993 arrived at the Naval Academy on July 3 1989, I Day, and swore to "well and faithfully discharge the duties of the office" on which we were about to enter. As the summer wore on we learned more about what it meant to be a Midshipman, and what it would take to become an officer in the United States Navy. We were flooded with the images of living Navy tradition and learned to act on a simple phrase: Carpe Diem. This simple phrase seemes to sum up life at the Naval Academy as we have come to know it, learning about the past while living in the present. Because of our strong belief in this principle, Carpe Diem has become the class motto and was used in the design of the class crest. Although our time here at the Naval academy may be relatively short we hope to leave our mark on Bancroft Hall by seizing each day for all that it is worth.

The 1993 Ring And Crest Committee

The ring and crest committee for the class of 1993 was off to an early start. David Whiddon and Vincent Galli-Zugaro were elected Chairman and Vice-Chairman, and together with the elected company representatives tackled the task of choosing a class crest and a motto. The main requisite in this ring and crest committee's decision was originality. The class of 1993 wanted a crest that would stand out among previous ones. Many candidates, all displaying various artistic talents were submitted, and the committee finally decided between the two finalists, the drawing which would best represent the spirit and originality of the class of 1993. While in the process of choosing the crest, the committee also chose a class motto on the basis of something which they had all heard during one of the numerous plebe summer lectures, but which nevertheless captured their attention . . . . . . "Carpe Diem", seize the day.

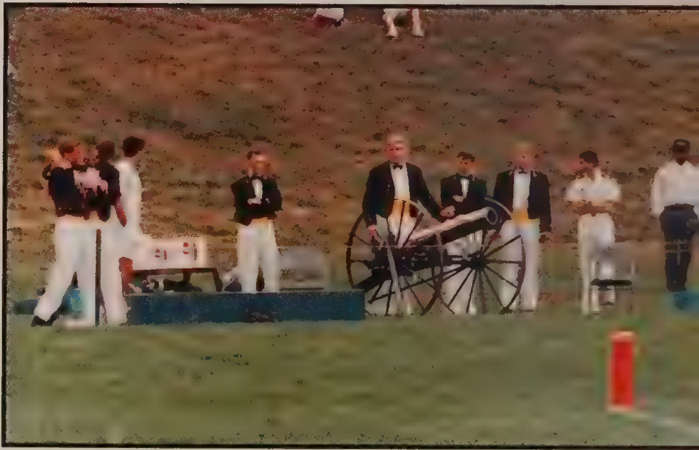
1993 Ring and Crest Committee: Chairman - Dave Whiddon Company Reps: James Bohn, Vince Galli-Zugaro, Todd Morgan, Eric Anduze, Craig Larson, Kevin Flynn, John Sahlin, Garold Edris, Sarg Glenn, Greg Selfridge, Joffrey Phelps, Norman Reitter, Shannon Marshall, Terry Hagen, Luan To, Sarah Dachos, Tom Wypyski, Scott Seyfarth, Mim Warlick, Homero Rivas, Devin Lasalle, Joy Slakes, Jon Hetland, Kim Schaeffer, Chris Tuklodeski, Doug Swisher, Michael Robles, Rick Overkamp, Brian Proctor, Brian Ries, Chip Neidigh, Ward Jones, John Stevens, Jason Maddocks, Brandon Honeycutt, Erik Eldridge Class of 93 Officers: Pres.: Matthew Arny.

Cheerleaders

This was a challenging year for the cheerleading squad. The class of '93 brought in a lot of new talent which benefitted the squad tremendously. Our coach, Patrick Wenning, who was also a Notre Dame cheerleader, was able to put a lot of new ideas to work to enhance Brigade spirit. Though it was a tough season, our appearance on "Good Morning America" and then an exciting victory over Army made all the hard work worth it. Our captains, Ted O'Neal and Carrie Soyland, and our Officer Representative, Captain L. Armel USMC, worked overtime in order to keep things running smoothly and did a great job. As our teams mature and strengthen, we are looking forward to some big winning seasons in the coming years, and we will be out there to lead the brigade in support of those teams. So let's all get out there and "Beat Army!".

M-Club

As a smaller part of the BSAC, the members of the M-Club DJ the mixers at Dahlgren Hall. They also have done Army-Navy hops and NAFAC activities when requested. The DJ's Midn 1/C Chris Straw, Midn 2/C Joey Melendez, and Midn 2/C Jared McCambridge cater to "whatever keeps 'em dancing." Regardless of genre, be it House music, Rock - n - Roll, Rap, Club (dance) music, or Progressive, the sounds are continually mixed for the crowd's pleasure.



United States Naval Academy Cannoneers

The Naval Academy Cannoneers are comprised of 8 midshipmen, 2 from each class, and an Officer Representative. This year's Cannoneers include Midn 1/c Kurt Egleseder and Franz Messner, 2/c Matt Howard and Steve Jenkins, 3/c Thomas Shanley and Mike Mehls and 4/c Anthony Mustillo and Lee Pearce. LCDR Richard White, USN, is the Officer Representative.

The Cannoneers perform at home football games, various home athletic events and the Plebe Recognition Ceremony. The cannon is also taken to the annual Army-Navy football game. This past year the cannon was utilized as the starting gun for the NCAA Cross Country Championships held at the Naval Academy.

The cannon is a vintage 1863 Dahlgren Boat Howitzer. The gun's historical records are on file at the National Archives. The gun saw use on the monitor MAHAPOC and the tug ALTHEA during the Battle at Mobile Bay.

As such, the cannon is not a toy and must be treated with respect. The midshipmen receive training in the proper handling and safety precautions surrounding the use of black powder ammunition. Although the use of black powder is not common to the modern Navy, the skills and understanding of ammunition safety the Cannoneers develop will assist them in their future careers as Navy and Marine Corps Officers.

USNA Scuba Club

The USNA Scuba Club, with over four hundred members, is one of the largest clubs at the Naval Academy. Members of the club have gone diving all over the world while on cruise. The club offers instruction ranging from basic scuba to wreck diving to instructor courses. Regular club dives range from qualification dives in Bainbridge, PA, to the annual spring break trip to Key Largo, FL, and include the wrecks of two German U-boats sunk in World War II off the coast of North Carolina.

The Scuba Club continues to expand, offering more exciting courses and new dive locations every year. Members are looking forward to taking full advantage of this underwater sport in the future as they travel around the world on summer cruises and first tours.

Archery Club

The Archery Club was founded in 1984 by Stephen Waugh due to the number of people interested in bow sports. There are currently over fifty members whose specialities vary from crossbow shooting to formal target-style archery. There are the traditionalists with their wooden recurves and the high-tech deerslayers with their compound composite cam bows. On Saturday mornings one can spot archers leaving on weekend with bows slung over their shoulders. New members are welcome, and no shooting experience is required. The club also has a number of bows for club use. This year's officers are Van Emery, Joe Polanin, Terry Fritz, and Rick Ryan.

Highpower Rifle Team

The Naval Academy Highpower Rifle Team affords midshipmen of all classes the opportunity to fire the M-14 service rifle in competition matches throughout the year. The club is designed to instruct the fundamentals of competitive marksmanship and to teach proper firearm safety. The team competes each summer in the Interservice Rifle Championships at MCB Quantico, VA, and the NRA National Championships at Camp Perry, OH. Team members have claimed numerous national and interservice titles in both the individual and team categories. They have also distinguished themselves at the All-Navy Fleet matches and regularly scheduled events in Bridgeville, DE, and York, PA. Matches are fired from distances of 200, 300, and 600 yards with an occasional 1000 yard match, and are fired from the standing, sitting, and prone positions.

The 1989-90 club officers were; Officer Representative - Capt Jon T. Hoffman, USMC; Team Captain/President - 1/C Gregory D. Houldson; Vice-President - 1/C Kent T. Churchill; and Secretary/Treasurer - 2/C Matt Hess.

Combat Pistol Team

The Combat Pistol Team offers Midshipmen of all classes an opportunity for instruction in the safe and efficient handling of a sidearm. Team training strives to develop the shooting techniques necessary for combat situations in a controlled, safe environment. The team practices shooting with movement between stations where silhouette targets are engaged at ranges from five to fifty yards. Scores depend on both accuracy and speed. The emphasis in training is on practical situations with some stations requiring a successful shot through a window, arround the edge of a wall, or from behind a table. Some silhouettes have hostages to be avoided while others are unarmed civilians. The team hopes to compete against several other military and police teams in the near future.

Officers are: President: Christopher Straw, Vice President: Tony Watson, Treasurer: Nelson Craig, Secretary: Charlie Pratt.

Log Magazine

The Log is the monthly magazine that attempts to poke fun at life at the Naval Academy and the antics of the Brigade of Midshipmen. The Log accomplishes this through stories, fact or fiction, photographs, and artwork. Material is contributed by various members of the Brigade and sources outside the Yard. However, the core of the Log is made up of fifteen to twenty midshipmen who contribute to every issue. The organization of each issue is done at layout where each page of the upcoming issue is planned and designed. The four or five hours of work at each session are broken up by taking group photos, eating, and just escaping life in Mother B.

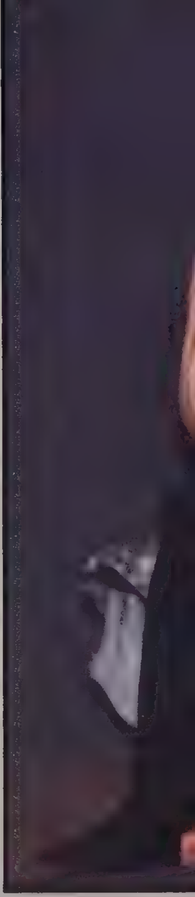
Each year the Trident staff puts together pictures and cartoons in the format of an organizational calendar. Mids either carry it around for appointment keeping or set it on their desks as a reminder for important dates (mainly leave periods). The general public, too, has an opportunity to buy the calendars at football games and other USNA functions.

Reef Points

The Reef Points Committee revises, writes and edits the annual copy of Reef Points. Their goal is to produce a handbook that will best provide the new plebes with a foundation knowledgeable of both the academy and the naval service, and to introduce them to what lies ahead in their chosen fields. This year's club officers were Editor: Midn 2/C Romuel B. Nafarrete, Assistant Editor: Midn 2/C Jim Robinette, Business Manager: Midn 2/C Mark Guillory and Treasurer: Midn 2/C Abe Paul.

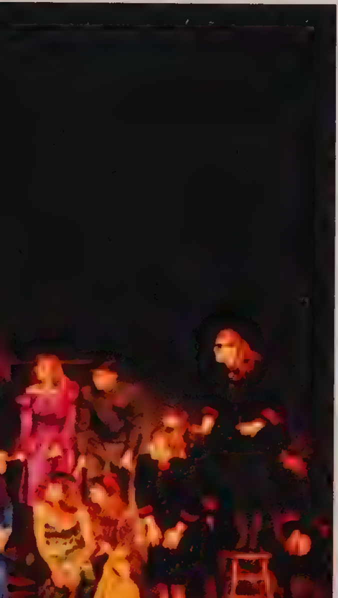


Masqueraders

The United States Naval Academy Masqueraders strives to instill a sense of artistic awareness in its members and audiences. Midshipmen who participate in this club experience camaraderie, discover the complexities of functioning cohesively as a cast, and expose themselves to the field of drama through rehearsal and presentation of theatrical classics. The Masqueraders proudly remains the oldest Extra Curricular Activity offered at the Academy, and has served as one of the Academy's leading Brigade Support Activities for many years. This season, the Masqueraders presented Thorton Wilder's "Out Town." In its fiftieth year of publication, this play depicts America's heritage.

Glee Club Musical

The Men's and Women's Glee Clubs joined us with a few Masqueraders to perform Damon Runyon's Guys and Dolls. Headlining the show was Kelly Duncan as Sarah Brown, Art Gibb as Sky Masterson, Steve Amiaga as Nathan Detroit, and Colleen McFeely as Adelaide. Set in the fifties, the dancing, singing, gambling, and preaching all made this musical into a romance-comedy that brought down the house. Some of the favorite tunes were "I'll Know," "Luck Be a Lady," "Sit Down, You're Rockin' the Boat," and "Sue Me." The Havana scene and the "Hot Box Girls" were also popular attractions to the show. Lastly, but certainly not least, we applaud the orchestra led by Dr. Talley.



The HOT

United States Naval Academy Women's Glee Club

The United States Naval Academy Women's Glee Club tours throughout the United States, performing for a wide range of audiences, from high schools and public concerts to network television.

Begun as an auxiliary to the Men's Glee Club when women first entered the academy in 1976, the women join the men annually in concerts and tours. Their repertoire includes classical and sacred selections, Broadway show medleys, and patriotic ballads.

Within the Women's Glee Club are two specialty groups, a trio which performs contemporary folk music, and a 50's group, complete with poodle skirts, which sings rock 'n roll.

Traveling throughout the country in support of the Naval Academy admissions program, the Women's Glee Club has also been featured on NBC's "Christmas in Washington," and several televised holiday shows.

The group of 45 women is directed by Jeanne Kelly.

United States Naval Academy Men's Glee Club

The United States Naval Academy Glee Club, with a professional reputation for versatility and showmanship, has gained national recognition touring throughout the United States and performing for a wide range of audiences, from high schools and public concerts to network television.

With a repertoire designed to appeal to all age levels and a variety of musical tastes, including sea chanteys, folk songs, classics, and popular tunes, the group of 80 midshipmen is under the direction of the Naval Academy's Director of Musical Activities, Dr. John B. Talley.

Three specialty groups within the Glee Club, the barbershop quartet, folk trio, and a 1950's-style rock'n roll troupe, round out the versatile performance of the academy singers. The trio plays contemporary music for easy-listening enjoyment. The quartet, sporting red arm garters and straw boaters, recalls the Gay Nineties era with old-fashioned harmonizing and two-stepping. The rock singers, a Naval Academy version of "Sha-na-na," never fails to bring smiles from the audience.

Traveling throughout the country in support of the Naval Academy Candidate Guidance Program, the Glee Club has performed in concert halls, churches, and high schools and has been featured in recent network television productions including the CBS Inaugural Gala for President Bush, NBC's Today Show, Good Morning America, and Christmas in Washington from the Old Pension Building.

Protestant Chapel Choir

The Protestant Choir concentrates on giving back to God what he has given us. We feel our voices are, on a most basic level, gifts from God; it is therefore our primary duty to lift our voices singing praises to Him each Sunday. We do not toil at practice for one final performance at the end of the year, but for about forty performances throughout the year. We have traveled to Virginia Beach, VA, and Tampa, FL spreading God's message, and many choir members join the Glee Club for the Christmas performance of Handel's MESSIAH.

The choir supports the Christian ministry of the USNA chapel and its growing congregation. We provide midshipmen as readers at Sunday chapel services and readers of the Midshipman's Prayer. We rehearse each Wednesday, (after drill) and bring many famous composers' works into chapel each Sunday. Occasionally, we sing an anthem on Sunday which we first saw at rehearsal that Wednesday, and the chapel community never knows. This is a real tribute to God's working through us.

Since '90 were plebes, we've closed each rehearsal with a prayer, asking God to continue to inspire our voices to praise Him.

Catholic Choir

The Catholic Midshipmen's Choir sings every Sunday at the 0900 Mass. It also represents the Naval Academy in several performances away from the yard each year. Every fall the Choir sings at one High Mass at St. Patrick's Cathedral in New York City and at the annual "Day for the Sea Services" at the Shrine of St. Elizabeth Ann Seton in Emmitsburg, Maryland. On alternate years the Choir sings at the Easter Mass at the St. Louis Cathedral in New Orleans, Louisiana and has been welcomed in Dallas, Texas.

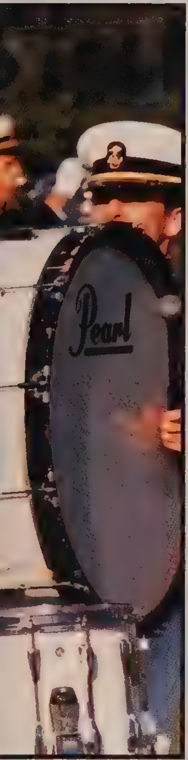
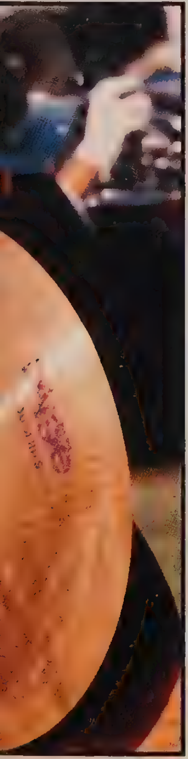
Gospel Choir

Standing: Timika Burnett, Derrick J. Smith Sitting: Eric Covington, Vonda Armstrong

The United States Naval Academy Gospel Choir is a unique and vibrant extracurricular activity—it enhances an awareness of the cultural heritage of a rather significant form of musical expression in this country.

The Gospel Choir was formed in the fall of 1985, and made its debut at the 1986 Martin Luther King, Jr., Memorial Service at the U. S. Naval Academy Chapel. The group was received so well that they were invited to sing at Vassar College. That first trip launched the choir on its way to the success it enjoys today.





Drum And Bugle Corps

This year celebrating its 75th season, the Naval Academy Drum and Bugle Corps performs proudly as the nation's oldest active drum corps. "Active" appropriately describes this group, which performs for every varsity football game, daily formations, pep rallies, and drum corps exhibitions across the country. The midshipmen put extensive practice hours, over four hours each day, in preparation for field show, pep band, and concert performances. During the 1989-90 marching season, the Corps travelled in support of Navy football and represented the Naval Academy in the Festival of Bands in ST. Petersburg, Florida, and in the Fiesta Festival in San Antonio, Texas. As a Brigade Support Activity, the Corps plays for other varsity sports and spirit related events, including pep rallies at the Pentagon for upcoming games with sister academies. The Corps was commanded by Midn 1/c Stephen Silva and Midn 1/c Billy Castleberry in the fall, and in the spring by Midn 1/c Ed Gernat and Midn 1/c Pam Krahl. The Corps is directed by Mr. John Watkins and the colorguard is coordinated by Mr. Donald Johnson. The officer representatives are CDR Royal Connell and LT Jim Nail.

International Club

President: Lynne Chapman

The International Club is an organization which acts as a means of representing and coordinating the various foreign language clubs at the Naval Academy. The International Club is composed of members of the Russian, French, Chinese, Spanish, and German clubs, as well as midshipmen from foreign countries. Each year this club sponsors the International Ball, inviting foreign dignitaries from Washington and their families to attend. In preparation for this event ballroom dancing classes are given, and some of the midshipmen do a demonstration at the ball. The Trident Brass also plays at this event.

NAVY

NAFAC

Every year foreign dignitaries, professors, college students, and Midshipman gather together for the week long Naval Academy Foreign Affairs Conference. Scattered throughout Mahan and Sampson Hall, future and current foreign analysts meet in small round table discussions. Here, a French student converses with a Australian Naval Cadet about the viability of the Warsaw Pact in today's turbulent times. In another room, a Japanese student talks with a Midshipman and a west coast professor about trade deficits between our two countries. Other topics range from the Contras in Central America, environmental pollution, the spread of democracy, or the Middle East. At the end of the week, this group disbands after gaining some new friends and some new insights into world affairs. Guests were treated to YP cruises, tours of the yard, and parties at the O club. There were also speeches and addresses by foreign dignitaries and ambassadors from Washington, D.C.

The Officers for this year's conference were: Director-Aimee Hodges, Pre-event-Derek Cribley, Reception-Eileen Haskins, Housing-Julie Connor, Messing-Stephanie Myers, Admin-Robert Frye, Moderators-David Fong, Deputy for Logistics-Melissa Metz, Deputy for Admin-James Forrester, Deputy for Communications-Joe Herlihy.

ACM

The Naval Academy student chapter of the Association for Computing Machinery (ACM) continued to grow and expand in its third year. The purpose of the club is to inform midshipmen of the ever-increasing advances in the field of computers, as well demonstrate how their current knowledge fits into the real world. While continuing its traditional monthly noon speakers, the club also hosted a regional computer contest, as well as participated in other invitational contests, and organized road trips to observe computers in the military working environment. The club officers were Ken Hunter, President; John Sewell, Vice-President; Chuck Sparks, Treasurer; and John Adams, Secretary.

PROFESSOR P. E. HARDEN

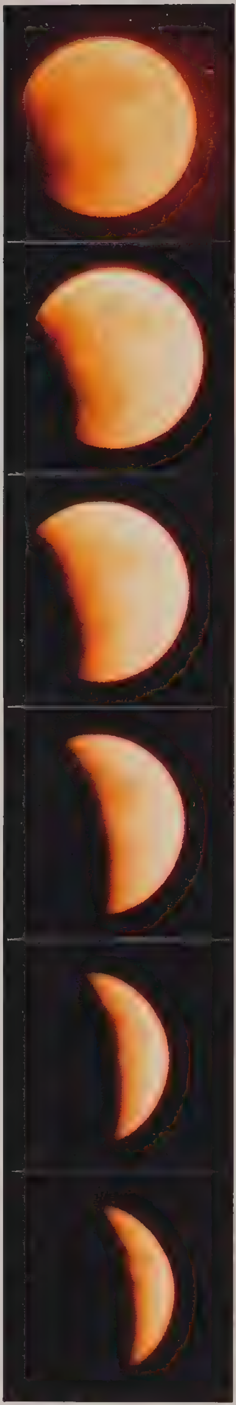
Debate Team

"Don't do it, argue it." Headquartered high above Sampson Hall, the debate team may be found daily researching, strategizing, and arguing the point. Debaters further their analytical and speaking skills, practicing formal policy debate. United States energy policy was the subject of this year's National Debate Tournament (NDT) season. Navy participated successfully in over ten intercollegiate NDT tournaments throughout the country this year. Navy Debate has established a formidable reputation on the debate circuit, consistently being ranked among the top ten NDT schools in the nation. This years officers were:

President and Captain: John Hardaway
Vice President: Mark Ortega
Secretary: Al Caesar
Treasurer: Kevin Mooney
Research Coordinator: Chuck Stuart
Training Officer: Gary Savitt

The Astronomy Club

The Astronomy Club is an ECA open to all four classes. During the year the club organizes trips to the Naval Observatory, the Naval Space Command, the Smithsonian, the Baltimore Science Museum, and the Goddard Space Center. There are also planetarium shows and discussion groups at USNA. The heart of the club, however, is observing, done both at USNA and on observing trips. The observing at the academy is mostly done by members on their own. Once qualified by the club "teachers," Prof. Albert or Lt. Dire, the individual is free to use the 16in., 8in, 5in, or 4in. telescopes of the astronomy club and physics department. Many associated eyepieces and accessories are available, as well as the capability for astrophotography. The 16 in. and an observing platform, unbeknown to most, is located on the roof of Michelson, and acessible to all those in the club.



Marine Technology Society

Motivated with a mission of gaining insight into the challenges of the Ocean and Atmosphere, the Marine Technology Society provides a forum for civilians, officers, and midshipman to interact on all levels. Officer and Civilian specialists in Oceanography and related fields share their experience and knowledge with the members, enabling midshipmen to better understand and appreciate ocean and air related problems faced by the Navy-Marine Corps Team today. Instructional and recreational activities which include lectures, field trips, a crabfeast, and a traditional Navy dining out, provide opportunities for the midshipmen and staff to fulfill the mission of the Marine Technology Society. The new Officer Representative, LCDR Butler, USN, and the Club Officers, Jim Tannahill, President, Lisa Kirkpatrick, Vice President, Pam Krahl, Secretary, and Ed DeVinney, Treasurer, worked together to organize the year's activities.

Churchill Society

The Churchill Society is an ECA composed of midshipmen of all classes and majors with an interest in the humanities and artistic endeavors. The society was founded in 1972 and named in honor of the extraordinarily popular early 20th century novelist Winston Churchill, a graduate of the Naval Academy Class of 1894. The Churchill Society regularly sponsors field trips to cultural events in the area, movies, guest lectures, and visitng poets and authors who speak in the yard.

Semper Fi

The Semper Fidelis Society presents midshipman the opportunity to take part in numerous activities geared toward the professional development of future Marine Corps officers. Yet this organization certainly does not limit its membership to "do or die" grunts; it is open to anyone interested in a little action and excitement. Semper Fi has offered such events as canoe trips through the Shenandoah Valley, rappelling at Fort Meade, weapons shoots, lectures by senior Marines from all communities, and recently the widely popular Soviet Awareness Brief. While members are given a taste of some of the challenges that they may face upon entering the Marine Corps, providing a great time is always high on the priority list.

Women's Professional Association

The Women's Professional Association is a support group for women in the brigade and is a source of information about women officer careers for all midshipmen, male and female. There are lectures and field trips for all midshipmen on various careers and aspects of military life. The highlight of this year was a talk by Major Higgins, wife of American hostage Colonel Higgins. She spoke on married life in the service, service couples, co-location, and separation.

Surface Action Group

The Surface Action Group exists to provide midshipmen with the opportunity to expand their knowledge and appreciation of the "Revolution At Sea" and its impact on the dynamic surface warfare community. Under the leadership of Midn 1/C Jeff Hickox, the club has sponsored guest surface warrior lecturers from the Pentagon and the fleet, receptions both ashore and aboard our newest warships, and fieldtrips to naval facilities that are building the warships of today and are fabricating the warships of tomorrow. The club would like to extend its appreciation to CAPT Wright, CAPT Gottschalk, and LCDR Allard for their support and enthusiasm, and to the Surface Navy Association for their insights and contributions.

L'Chaim

The L'Chaim club has had a fascinating year of growth and events. Our new rabbi, LCDR Slomovitz brought in a host of ideas and programs. The result being record attendance at Jewish High Holiday services, an especially emotional Interfaith Thanksgiving program, and a poignant Holocaust Memorial service.

The year concluded with Gary Savitt ('90) becoming the first Bar Mitzvah at the Naval Academy and the Jewish Baccalaureate service featuring speaker Adam Bovshow ('90). This year's officers were: President- Harold Katz ('90); Vice Pres.- Adam Brodbar ('91); Secretary- Mike Schoffman ('92).

Navigators

The Navigators is an interdenominational Christian organization. The purpose of the group is to help midshipmen grow in their relationship with Jesus Christ and develop stronger, more solid faith in order to please Christ in their personal and professional lives. This year we especially focused on two things: getting to know Jesus better, and through knowing Him, helping others to know Him as well. In order to promote these two objectives, we had a lot of small-group activities like hiking, work parties at sponsors, and Bible studies. Over long weekends we went on retreats where we sang songs, heard guest speakers, and ate awesome food. Over spring break we drove out to Colorado for a ski trip, rendezvous-ing with the Navigators from Army. The year ended with our annual canoe trip and a graduation banquet.

FCA

The purpose of the National Fellowship of Christian Athletes is, "To present to athletes and coaches, and all whom they influence, the challenge and adventure of receiving Jesus Christ as Savior and Lord, serving him in their relationships and in the fellowship of the church."

Everyone at the Academy is an athlete no matter what level of sport he or she participates in. We emphasis not so much the athlete, but Christ and glorifying His name. This is achieved at our meetings where we have guest speakers, discussions, activities, fellowship. Throughout the year there are banquets, retreats, picnics.

Any FCA member will say that it is a great way to receive fellowship, meet friends, enjoy the love of Christ, and learn a great deal about yourself.

Protestant Midshipman Club

The Naval Academy Protestant Midshipman Club exists to enhance personal spiritual growth of its members through fellowship and application of Christian faith. The missions and the activities of the club compliment those of the other religious ECA's. Working closely with the Protestant Chapel community, the club provides Sunday morning Children's Church, while also sending speakers to nearby churches and colleges as a form of Christian outreach and Academy familiarization. The chaplains and club members lead lay worship and peer counselling classes which provide helpful skills that can be used in the fleet.

Latter-Day Saints Student Association

The Latter-Day Saints Student Association is composed of those members of the brigade interested in learning about and promoting the unique doctrines of the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-Day Saints (the Mormons). Weekly meetings were held to discuss readings in the Holy Bible, as well as the Book of Mormon. Through these meetings, members were able to strengthen their scriptural knowledge and understanding of Mormon beliefs. In addition to weekly meetings, the group made several trips to the Latter-Day Saints Temple in Washington, DC to participate in the ordinances of that temple.

Baptist Student Union

The Baptist Student Union is a Baptist-sponsored fellowship for all students. Regular Monday night meetings provided spiritual growth to midshipmen and other members. Football season saw the use of the BSU center for aftergame fellowship and other activities. The final event of the year, during end of semester leave was building an addition onto a church on the Eastern Shore of Maryland.

Officers' Christian Fellowship

The Officers' Christian Fellowship here at the Naval Academy is a local chapter of the national OCF— an organization composed of Christians from all branches of the military and united by a vision of reaching our services for Christ. The members of the USNA OCF meet regularly on Monday evenings to sing praises to God, share testimonies, listen to the inspirational messages of various speakers, and to share in the warmth and fellowship of fellow Christian Midshipmen and Officers. The OCF also holds regular retreats over Labor Day and Martin Luther King Jr. weekends. These, as well as the leadership conference over Presidents Day weekend, take place at White Sulfur Springs, a conference center in Pennsylvania owned by the national OCF. Cal and Linda Dunlap, local representatives of the national OCF staff, open their home on 21 Maryland Avenue (right outside gate 3) every Saturday night from 1830 until 2300 for fun, food, and fellowship for any Midshipmen interested in coming. The Dunlaps, along with LT Steve Mackie, the OCF officer representative, aid the four Midshipmen on the elected staff, six Battalion and 36 Company representatives as they attempt to serve the Brigade as one of several Christian ECAs devoted to the development of officers who are morally and spiritually prepared to take on the role of leaders in both the Navy and Marine Corps.

Midshipman Action Organization

The Midshipman Action Organization was organized to provide midshipman with the opportunity to participate in suitable short-term volunteer activities in the local community. Spring and Winter Special Olympics are two of our biggest community undertakings. This Christmas, we participated in the "Hanging of the Wreaths" ceremony in downtown Annapolis. The Midshipman Action Organization also initiated many other scheduled local events throughout the year such as Mids 'n Kids, a tutoring program; Science Fair Judges for the 4-H Club; and Park Cleanups, to name only a few. The Midshipman Action Organization exists to serve the local community but also to broaden the horizons of the midshipmen in that community.

NESA

The National Eagle Scout Association chapter at the Naval Academy consists of approximately 200 Eagle Scouts from the Brigade of Midshipmen. Each year we host a merit badge jamboree for 500 boy scouts from the mid-Atlantic states. We also participate in local camporees, host visiting boys scout troops at work with handicapped boy scouts in the Annapolis area. The midshipmen make several camping and canoe trips each year and host and annual banquet. During the summer approximately 10 midshipmen serve as rangers at Philmont Boy Scout Ranch in New Mexico.

Big Brothers And Big Sisters

The first day of plebe summer, midshipman are tought to help each other. Big Brothers and Big Sisters offers an opportunity for midshipmen to reach outside the gate to help young boys and girls from the Annapolis community.

Each midshipman in the program is paired with a youngster who needs the support of an adult friend. Group activities include sporting events, bowling parties, and pizza parties, but most often the bigs and their littles spend time together enjoying one another's company.

The littles often look to their bigs for advice and support. The bigs look to the littles for a great friend. The midshipmen, little brothers and little sisters all gain from their special relationship.

President: Andy Gentry, Vice President: Jim Vestevich, Secretary-Treasurer: Christian Wortman

Midshipmen's Black Studies Club

The purpose of the Midshipmen's Black Studies Club is to educate its members in Black History as well as increasing their Black awareness. By opening its membership to all Midshipmen, the club hopes to share the Black culture with the whole Brigade. Each meeting serves to broaden club knowledge of the contributions of the many black men and women who have in times past and present affected the lives of all Americans. The knowledge of black contributions is paramount in defining the role of blacks in America and dispelling negative stereotypes. The club stays active in the community while presenting a positive role model for other area minorities. By inviting successful naval officers as well as civilians to speak at the Academy, we support and reinforce a positive image for Black America and the Brigade of Midshipmen.

Korean American Midshipmen Association

The purpose of our ECA is to promote the common interests of the members based on our similar ethnic backgrounds and/or interests. It is designed primarily as a support group for the Korean-American midshipmen. Support in that it will enhance and educate the midshipmen on our ethnic diversity. As future leaders of men and women of all various backgrounds, we feel that this organization provide a better understanding of all minorities, particularly the Korean-Americans. Annually, we attend the Korean-American Student Conference (KASCON) which enhance our leadership potentials within the Korean-American community and at the same time, bring awareness to oriental involvement in the military services. This conference helped us to establish outside ties with other clubs with similar focus, in order to share ideas and friendship. All in all, we strive for a common midshipmen entity, FUN!!!

Filipino-American Club

The Filipino-American Club (or "Barkada" - filipino for "family") focuses on a better understanding of the unique culture of Filipino-Americans for both the Filipino midshipmen and anyone else who is interested in fostering cultural awareness. The club centers on the close family and community ties that many Filipinos have known their whole lives.

Among the club's numerous activities are providing young Filipino-Americans in the Annapolis community a "big brother or sister", fostering an understanding of Filipino culture within the Brigade, and developing that sense of "family" so necessary in everyone's life. New activities this year include a canned food/old clothing drive to help the staggering number of poor in the Philippines.

IEEE: Institute Of Electrical And Electronic Engineers

IEEE is one of the largest professional societies in the world. The local chapter at the academy provides midshipmen with an opportunity to join this national organization. The IEEE society is open to both electrical and system engineering majors. The club sponsored a project fair, an awards ceremony during commissioning week, and a baseball game against the faculty. The IEEE is a unique opportunity for midshipmen to become members of a national engineering organization.

Tau Beta Pi is the national engineering honor society. Midshipmen in the upper eighth of their junior engineering class or in the upper fifth of their senior engineering class are eligible for membership. Tau Beta Pi believes that technical knowledge alone is not enough preparation for an engineer. From community involvement in judging high school science fairs, to helping organize the plebe majors brief here at the Naval Academy, Tau Beta Pi emphasizes a spirit of liberal culture. The ultimate goal is to prepare the engineer to be responsive to others and to be helpfully active in the community.

WRNV is a non-commercial FM radio station that broadcasts at 89.7 FM. The station provides non-stop music to the brigade of midshipmen and the surrounding Annapolis area. They play all kinds of music from rock, to rap, to contemporary Christian music. They sponsored live talk shows featuring the Commandant and the Superintendent. They also support the brigade by broadcasting Navy Hockey games, football games, and Service Selection, to name a few of their special shows.

WRESTLING

Ron Karun brings in a looong awaited dinner for the staff. "Pizza again?!?"

Andy Sekela, Matthew Taliaferro, Julie Hansen, and John Beach (Jostens' publishing rep) work fast and furiously on the ECA section.

Jennifer Taitt, Business Manager, hard at work fixing, uh, balancing the books.

"I volunteered for this?" laments Christy Johns, Editor-in-Chief.

Lucky Bag

The 1990 Lucky Bag staff managed to put together a 808 page full color yearbook despite tight time constraints. Having only Friday nights and weekends to officially work on the book, the staff made the best of it and put out an annual worthy of the Academy name. During those weekly Friday night work parties, staffers cropped pictures, wrote copy, sent out letters, as well as numerous other tasks. Our trusty photographers clicked off shots at all the major events of the year and tried to capture the spirit of Hall life. The office is hidden in the catacombs above the Rotunda, so it is quite conducive to working hard without interruption, with the occasional visit by the OOW/CDO. Working side by side with our staff were George Rosa III and John Beach. George and the rest of the staff at Yearbook Associates printed all those color pictures (about a thousand of which were in the last four weeks before deadline!!!!). John Beach of Jostens Publishing sat with us, rolled up his sleeves and cranked out layouts.

CLOSING

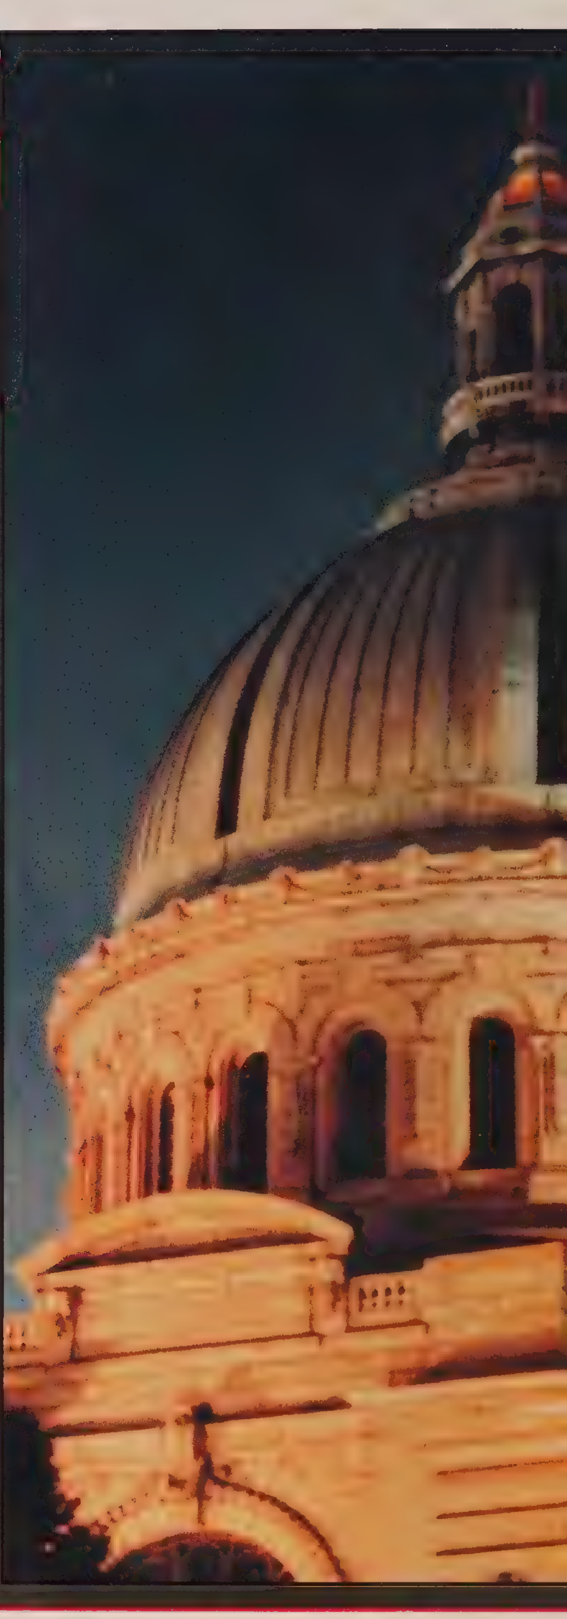
On the morning of graduation, I left my new apartment and jogged down to a park that overlooks a small cove full of sailboats. The Chapel Dome peeked above the trees that enveloped the water. I thought of my four years at the Academy . . .

I saw ducks splashing near the shore—
I remembered all the struggles.
I noticed the stillness of the water—
I recalled the quiet of the yard at night.
I saw two rabbits scurry into the woods—
I thought of the dear friends I was about to leave.
I played like a child on the swings—
I realized how much I had experienced.
I felt the early morning sun on my face—
I savored the joy of completion.

As I walked away my heart was beating faster and my step was a little lighter.

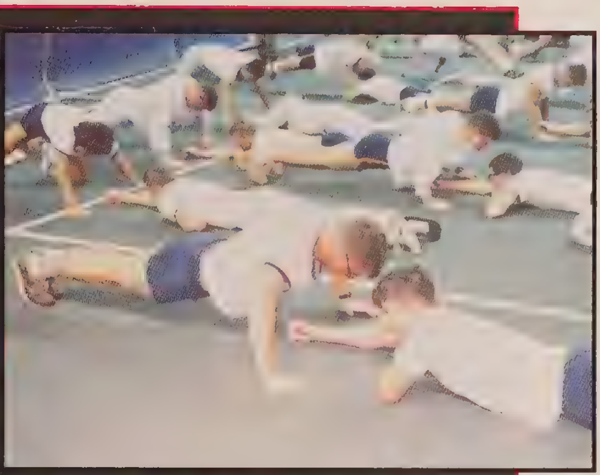
So now the year is over and another class has gone to the Fleet. It is the same every year— plebe summer, 2 for 7, Army/Navy, and on and on until graduation. What's the point? What makes us so special?

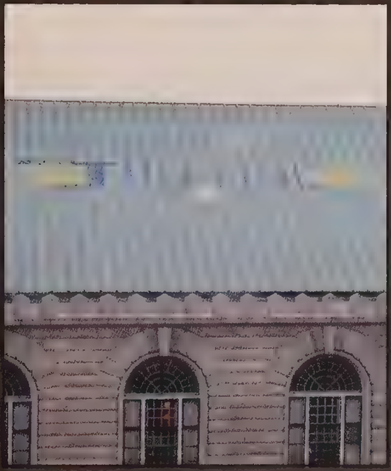
It's the people and who they are inside. After all, as officers we are in the business of leading people. We must get to know and understand ourselves so that we may be sensitive to others.



The Naval Academy— this is where we grow up and learn what it means to put others before self. We reach for the ultimate goal of making the world that much better because of our efforts and sacrifices.

We strike a balance. We learn to relax and take pleasure in the peaceful moments, but still know how to push ourselves in times of stress.





We walk off to begin our new lives knowing that we have hurt and healed, have fallen and stood tall, have given of ourselves and been returned in kind.

We have envisioned beyond the uniforms, the regimentation, and the academics. We have experienced Color in a Black and White World.

F-16. THE NAVY'S OWN WORST ENEMY.

F-16. The best single fighter in the world. Navy pilots are now flying against the hottest single-engine fighter in the world.

Designated the F-16N Adversary Fighter, this incredibly fast and agile combat fighter engages Navy crews in mock combat. Simulates advanced enemy fighter tactics. Challenges them to survive.

Those who win come away with the knowledge and confidence that, if the time ever comes, they'll win in the real world of air-to-air combat.

Which is what makes the Navy's own worst enemy its own best friend.

Kevin McGoff: WANTED: Photo Editor— No experince required, only enthusiasm. "Christy, I am really excited about this job." "Kevin, it's yours."

"A real attitude changer."

"Now when we say, 'here's how we can fix this,' somebody helps us fix it. Management isn't just listening, they're doing. That's a real attitude changer right there.

Just knowing you're going to get help makes you want to do better. You won't settle for saying, 'Well, this is as good as this equipment will let me do.' You make your case for better tools, and if that's the best solution, you know you're going to get them.

That was the best solution for us. And now we're turning out quality drilled parts, somewhere around 20,000 of them each month for everything from Harpoon fin blades to F/A-18 pylon supports—with 98 percent of them perfect the first time around. And that makes us feel like experts.

Of course, I can't say we got where we are alone. We've had plenty of help."

OUR "COMPREHENSIVE" PERSONAL PROPERTY INSURANCE FOR CADETS/MIDSHIPMEN IS

10 Ways Better

than other "Comprehensive" coverage for Academy Students

Here are just 4 examples

LOSS OR THEFT OF JEWELRY, WATCHES, FURS

Our policy pays up to $250 per item and, at no added cost, higher limits if you list (schedule) property in these categories with us. Other policies normally pay only $250 for loss of any one or more items in the above grouping. With other companies, higher limits require a separate policy at added cost. Note: The method of insuring service academy, university or college graduation rings may differ from insurer to insurer.

LOSS OR THEFT OF CASH

Our policy pays up to $250. With other policies, the limit usually is only $100.

TOTAL AMOUNT OF COVERAGE YOU CAN BUY

You can buy as much coverage as you want from us. Other unscheduled "comprehensive" coverage offered to cadets and midshipmen is usually limited to $3,000.

LENGTH OF TIME YOU CAN KEEP COVERAGE

Our policy not only gives you "comprehensive" protection for your property while you are a cadet or midshipman, but also throughout your service career. Your commissioning does not require you to take any action to continue your coverage. It automatically goes with you to your first commissioned assignment. Others may require you to take out a new policy, at new rates, at the first policy renewal after graduation.

Camaro Z28 is back. Gentlemen, don't even bother to start your engines.

1991 Camaro Z28 ■ Dramatic new styling. ■ 5.0 Liter V8 with Tuned-Port Fuel Injection. ■ Unidirectional Goodyear Eagle tires on 16" rims. ■ Heavy-duty front and rear stabilizer bars. ■ PASS-Key™ Security System. The most sophisticated theft-deterrent system in GM history. ■ 3-year/50,000-mile Bumper to Bumper Plus Warranty.*

THE Heartbeat OF AMERICA IS WINNING.
TODAY'S CHEVROLET ™

If the competition was itching for a rematch, they're gonna wish they hadn't. First, notice the new domed hood. As if the metal was stretched by the 205 horses coming from its 5.0 Liter V8. Next, lower your eyes and you'll see the new scooped-out lower rockers. Look further. The new aeroformed wing finishes off the tail like an exclamation point. No doubt about it. Gentlemen, the Camaro Z28 is back. The new authority figure. And a very intimidating reason why nobody's winning like The Heartbeat of America.

Introducing a new chapter in ASW support from Indal Technologies

For more than 30 years, navies and coast guards around the world have relied on Indal Technologies for a complete range of shipborne helicopter support systems.

This capability has recently been expanded with the acquisition of Fathom Oceanology, a world leader with more than 20 years in the design, manufacture and support of sonar cable handling systems, towed vehicles and other sophisticated underwater technologies.

Indal's experience in fully-integrated helicopter recovery and deck handling systems, telescopic hangars and hangar doors has given the company a unique place among those who operate their helicopters in the world's most demanding flying environment — at sea.

Now, one company provides the expertise for ASW operations support, from the sky to beneath the surface. It's a new depth of capability that offers navies and coast guards a single source for ASW support.

This is the first page of a new chapter which begins with 50 years of blue-water experience.

Editor's Thoughts

Here it is the night before (morning of?) final page submission and if you've ever been an editor you know what time it is. Alas, my reward-- I get to thank all those people that have kept me sane and put this book together with me. Sighted in no specific order, these people have my deepest gratitude:

Stephanie A. Myers: My "Ass. Ed." She kept my office spotless (a monumental task) and a smile on my face. Remember the 'Tickler file.' "Steph, I'm having a difficult time with organized religion-- wanna play 'Pick-Up-Sticks'?"

James A. Young: The only reason we ever got close to making a deadline. Thanks.

Jennifer Taitt: A madwoman with an accountant's ledger! How you kept track of $200,000, $44 at a time, I'll never know. Maybe you should go supply. Naah! Fly Navy!!

Dianna Manzoni: My roommate, my friend, and my year section editor? You took over in December never having worked on a yearbook before and you did great. I love you.

Julie Hansen: 1991 Lucky Bag Editor. You gave up leave to finish up with me. At least you know what you're getting into next year. Continue the Dynasty with pride.

Matthew Taliaferro: Mr. Dependability! You were there every Friday night, then as if you hadn't worked hard enough you gave up your liberty during ACTRAMID. You're a loyal staff member and a true friend.

Andy Sekela: Joining Matt during libs, you produced more copy in five days then the rest of the staff did all year. So much eloquence in so little time.

Susan Gottschalk: "Just give me a call if you need me," you said. You probably didn't know what you were getting into, but you handled it like a champ. Thanks for the hard work and the french bread, too.

Phil Hoffmann, NAAA Photographer: If it's a great sports action shot, then Phil shot it. Thanks for being so generous with the pics.

Potts, Myrna, and the YBA staff at Bowie: Another successful year thanks to you. Who else can develop 24 rolls of film over night?!

George Rosa III: You know how to make a staff feel important. You and your staff printed pics for nearly half the book in the last three weeks. Thanks, buddy.

Jane M. Collins: Though you were 6000 miles away, you are very much a part of this book. I learned it all from you (and my mistakes). Hugs!

Now there are a few people who didn't actually work on the book, but their support gave me the strength to do it.

Edna Taylor: You helped me (made me?) grow and change for the better. Four years ago I could not have believed in myself enough to even have attempted this. Thanks and God bless.

My Dad and Mom (Harry and Rose Hanna): You're right, nothing is more important than family. Thanks for your love and patience.

And finally, thanks to my Lord, Jesus Christ. I can do nothing without Him and I have everything because of Him.
